Petition dated 15/9/1936 from Sri Appa Reddi and other anubhavadars of S Nos 12, 15 & 16 in Madivala village in Bangalore Tal K (present through Mr. C. Kavanappa BA BL advocate, Bangalore City) stating that they have been served with an order prohibiting them from entering on the lands and requesting that the order may be withdrawn and the lands restored to their full assessment.

S Nos 1, 11 & 16 of Madivala village were vested as one for the maintenance of a Dargah in S No 17 of the village. The four S Nos were ordered to be given up to the Inam Commissioner in G.O. No 1757 Mis 154-4-4 dated 8/5/1936

The petitioners, who are the anubhavadars of the lands, state that they have been served with an order prohibiting them from entering upon the lands.

3 They pray that the order may be withdrawn and the lands restored to them on full assessment in view of the long period of their enjoyment.

4. The matter may therefore be dealt with in the Muzrai Branch to which the lands will be transferred.
